Challenge

The West Kowloon Law Courts Building provides a total net operational floor area of about 16,500 square metres (178,000 sq ft). A legitimacy structure like the West Kowloon Law Court requires a high level of security therefore the government has to go through a strict examination and selection on building materials to be used in this building.

Solution

As a trusted worthy supplier, ASSA ABLOY Hong Kong provided full EN package of Door Hardware to comply the requirements from government. We also provided ABLOY Door Automatic Solutions in supporting the diversity of the building's architectural design.
